

Rachel Roe

Chief Legal Officer
Munson Healthcare

Rachel Roe is Chief Legal Officer for Munson Healthcare. She provides critical legal guidance and innovative solutions that align the organization's strategies within legal boundaries. Prior to her appointment in 2017, she served as Assistant General Counsel for Munson Healthcare.

Before joining Munson Healthcare, Ms. Roe was a partner specializing in health law in the law firm Smith Haughey Rice & Roegge. Earlier in her career, she served as Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for Grand Traverse County and as a law clerk to both Judge Maura Corrigan of the Michigan Court of Appeals and Justice Patricia Boyle of the Michigan Supreme Court.

Ms. Roe is a member of the American Health Lawyers Association and the State Bar of Michigan Health Law Section, as well as various professional associations and community service organizations.

Ms. Roe graduated with honors from Wayne State University Law School and with honors from the University of Notre Dame. She lives in Traverse City, Michigan with her husband and two children.